

02-0 -0242

An Ordinance by Debi Starnes

An Ordinance to name the new playground built in Freedom Park, by Poplar Circle, "Urban Nirvana – in memory of Christine Sibley".

WHEREAS, Christine Sibley was a nationally known artist, who resided in Inman Park for over years,

AND WHEREAS, Ms Sibley developed her artist studio and gardens in Inman Park and named the Urban Nirvana,

AND WHEREAS, Ms Sibley always welcomed children and youth to Urban Nirvana, and hosted many community events for them, including the famed Caterpillar Ball during the annual Inman Park Festival,

AND WHEREAS, Ms Sibley died on ,

AND WHEREAS, the Inman Park Neighborhood Association (IPNA) helped raise funds and worked with the City's Parks Department, to build a playground in Freedom Park,

AND WHEREAS, IPNA voted to honor the memory of Christine Sibley by naming the new playground after her,

BE IT THEREFORE ORDAINED, that the playground in Freedom Park, by Poplar Circle, be named:

"Urban Nirvana – in memory of Christine Sibley" and that the Parks Department work with IPNA to erect the appropriate signage depicting the new name.

E-1